

Sinclair Broadcasting's plan to distribute pro-Bush propaganda in the form of an anti-Kerry television show is an outrageous abuse of the public trust and violates campaign finance laws. You must stop it or levy a very stiff fine to discourage others from such abuses.